Tuesday

ridau

BIRDS RE-PORTED PLENTIFUL

New Game Law Allows Only Twelve Quail Killed in a Day

from every section as to the court, while others have been quail crop. In every neighborhood the birds are reported to be more plentiful than for years tentiary last May, past and the hunters are looking forward to extra good shooting. owners more disposed to keep "bootleggers." indiscriminate hunters off their ground and permission had better be secured before entering any field.

will have a direct influence on is investigating this killing. the quail shooting is the new law which limits each hunter's kill to twelve birds per day. In times past it bas often been nothing short of wanton slaughter; when no limit was set hunters were allowed to kill all the birds they could. A genuine sportsman will religiously adhere to this law, for it was passed to safeguard the quail and prevent them from being cleaned out entirely. and for those who will not observe the bag limit it is proposed to have wideawake game wardens who will see that they are prosecuted if they go above the limit. Game wardens have the power to stop any hunter at any time and make him show what he has in his bag.

BREMEN RE-PORTED CAPTURED

The German merchant submarine Bremen is reported captured by the English with a cargo of dvestuffs and $250,000,000 worth of diamonds on board. The ship is now tied up at Falmouth harbor, according to a story told by Dr. R. Tait Mc-Kinzie, director of the depart ment of physical education in the phia after sixteen months in army training at Camp Aldershot, outside of London.

Some of the diamonds are famous precious stones belonging to Garmany.

Needle Craft

Mrs. Harrier Bowning entertained the Noe He Craft Thursday evening at her home on were present and the hostess served a most delightful salad course after work hours were guest of the clab.

"NIGHT RIDER"

The trials of about eighty-five alleged "night riders" are set for Monday in circuit court at Mad isonville. Indictments were returned against a large number There come slowing reports of these at the May term of under indictment for sometime. Six were sentenced to the peni-

Twenty-five indictments have been returned by the grand jury. But they will find the land Most of these were against

No indictment has been returned against Mack Logan, who shot and killed Marshal K. H. Keach, at Dawson list July, but Another thing this year which the grand jury, it is understood,

Elect Officers

At a call meeting of the Philathe Class Tuesday evening at the home of Ralph Dadley officers of the class were elected as follows: Mrs. R. E. Dudley, teacher; Miss Margaret Mitchell, president; Miss Lucy Fawcett, first UGH! CALOMEL MAKES WILL MEET vice president; Miss Bardie Jennings, second vice president; Miss Margaret Kemp, treasurer, and Miss Cordie Jennings, secre

On motion it was unanimously carried that the first Toesday in each month be designated for the purpose of helding social meetings at the homes of various members. The first meeting of this kind will be held Thursday, Oct. 3, at the home of Miss Lucy Fawcett, on East Main. All members are urged to be present.

Concreting on West Main About Done

The residents of West Main street have about completed the work of putting in walks in front of their · property. When this work it finished Main street on University of Pennsylvania, who both sides of the railroad will be has lately returned to Philadel- practically all concrete walks and it certainly improves the appearance of the city. Contractors Harry Long and Brother and ing great, It's perfectly harm-George Miller had charge of the less, so give it to your children

SUPPER AT LAKESIDE PARK

The pupils of the sixth and seventh grades gave a bacon fry West Main. At the members and picnic supper to their teachers, Misses Julia Fawcett and 4 Mayme Stanley, at Lakeside + park Tuesday night. After supover. Miss Merrie King was the per they sat around the camp fire and played games, told tales + and otherwise enjoyed them-

DIRECTORS MEETING

The regular October meeting of the Directors of St Bernard Mining Dixie Bee Line Co. will be held in the offices of the of the Company at Earlington, Ky., on Wednesday, Oct. 11, 1916.

Dan M Evans, Sec'y.

Mrs. Tom Long, of St. Charles, Mrs. Jos Sammers.

Paul Friedman; of Madisonville, Edward Rash, of Madisonville, was in the city Tuesday on business. J. T. Alexander, of Madisonville, was in the city Tuesday afternoon on business.

Mrs. Dick Meacham went to Madisonville Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. R. Fish and son, Frank, were in Madisonville Wednesday afternoon.

THOSE THAT HAVE-GET DY WESTON

YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before it Salivates You! -It's Horrible!

You're bilions, sluzeish, con support and believe you need vile, dangerons calomel to start our liver and clean your howels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your draggist for a 50c bottle of Detson's Liver Time and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start cour liver and stretcht n you right up better than calomel and without criping or making you sick, I want you to to back to the store and get your Take extomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's foodstuffs on the basis of quantity. work. Take a spoonful of harm-Tone tonight and wake up feel any time. It can't salivate, so let them est anything after-

SURRENDER TO WOULD TEND TO DISASTER.

"That kind of virus in our lifesurrender to force-would bring us no end of disaster. If we let capitalists or workingmen, any interest, learn that the way to get what is wanted is by applying pressure and if we continue in that course for a few years, democracy will be a failure, and 4 we might as well give up our force of government." - Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

Inspection Postponed

The inspection of the D x spent Wednesday afternoon with Bee Line has been postponed until after the November election on account of Mayor Bosse and was in the city Tuesday afternoon, other members of the committee of Missions will in a next Wedbeing unable to attend on ac-J. C. Keiler, secretary of the ac-

AT MORTONS

The Little Bothel Association of Britist churches will meet in its mind," he says. "G'wan, where annual session at Mortons Grp glory waits," he says. "G'wan, in the on We'll slay and Thursday, Oct. 4 and 5. The association is compused of rouge 36 churches admiration. with a memdership of about 4,-000, the waj wity of these churchis being to Hopkins county. Tae Morrous Gap church w li take pleasure in providing_enteriainment for all who attend the association, both is me onger and visitors. The first secsion will be held We lnesd y morning at 10 o'clock

Quality Versus Uuantity

Many housewives make a vital: mistake in choosing some of their Bill," says Balaam, lor-rupin the basto tess vegetable D dson's Liver that the cheapest is always the most expensive while the highest priced is not always the best.

thing. When you select foods, be lopes on limph' wid pain. careful Don't choose any particular tures they had, but they kep' on over brand of, say Baking Powder for ex-rough roads, now an' then crossin' a ample, just because you get a big can for a small price

the materials involved is not any- Jack-Ass can be that when he's licked, where equal to the small amount

Then again, because the price is high, don't think the quality is the losing money.

Look for the happy medium. You'll find it. Choose a brand that costs a moderate price and you'll find it more economical to buy and more economical to use.

he est Baking Powder in the world can be made so as to sell for 25c per 1 lb.

Christian Woman's Board of Missions

The Christian Woman's Board arsday offer a min a 2:30 o'clock. count of the election campaign. The object or: "Gographica and Roughas Sarvey of Latin sociation, in a letter to Jurge Am rea Today." Thus is the forward into the dark. Will T. Mills states that the first meeting of the new miseionprobable date of inspection will are year and a large attendance be about the middle of Novem- is requested. Mrs. Otley Van noy will be leader.

Finnegan's Philosophy BALAAM

Well do I mind the story, said Finnegan. Balaam was a highbrow that knowed less than his Jackass. He took an office to curre the people. The Jacknes saved them. 'Tis all in Numbers Twinty-two. Och hone! 'Tis different these times. The Jackass knew better till Balaam tamed him. "Lave me ride ye," says Balaam, "an' I'll make ye the biggest Ass in the "Great," says the Ass; "what d'ye feed 7" "Pork," says Balaam.

"Me savior," says the Ass. So Balaam mounts. But soon the fack balks. "Phwat is it?" says Balsam.

"Snakes," says the Ass; "Ut looks like the jawbone uv me mother." "G'wan," says Balsam, hittin' the Ass a clip, "'ils me furren' policy,"

"Phwat's ut for?" axes the Ass. "Ut definds the nashun," says Balaam.

"How?" says the Asa. "Faith," says Balaam, "ut takes a bigger Ass than you to know that. Lave it to Brine," says Balsam to the Ass; an' the Jack walks on medita-

"Hee, haw," says the Ass, balkin' an kickin'

"What now?" says Balaam, "Divil a Jackass ever seen the like," says the Ass. "Ut could be a frog," says he, "for ut stands up in front, an' sits down behind; an' 'tis mos'ly mouth," says the Ass. "Ut has white feathers," says the Jack, "wid yaller streaks, that changes," he says, Very Crooz Red, or Niagaray Blue, an' now they're Carrysall Yaller again,' says he. "Hivins, have I been drink in'7" screams the Ass to Balaam.

"Saints be praised," says Balaam. "Me Watchful Waitin' can still change service uv Mankind," says Balaam to the Ass, touching him up. An' the Ass shuffles ahead, wavin' his ears in

"Hee-haw! Hee-haw!" says the Jack, rearin' up wid his eyes buigin', "Phwat's grippin' ye now?" says Balaam, Impasbunt like, "I donno," says the Ass. "Ut looks like the Flyin' Dutchman with a Socialist Crew," he says. "Tis me Ship Bill," says Balaam. "Side step to the right," he says; "side step to the left," says be, weitin' him.

"Back up," says Balaam, near wrenchin' off the Jack's jaw. "Now forward for the Merchant Marine an' fifty millyun pork," saya Balaam wid a "Wah-hee! Wah-hee! Wah-hee!" says the Jack, shyin' so he near threw his

"T'll learn ye to shy at me Navat so be cud scarce stand. It has been proven time and again "Ye can't pass at which lack in a Republican clothes," says the Jack in a

"Ye Ass," says Balaam. "Don't ye know that anny cloes is betther nor nakedness? G'wan," says Balaam, in

I've not time to tell ye all the advenditch on a wan term plank, which made even Balaam unaisy. Iviry time the Jack kicked, he got short rations The risk you take in running your an' a wallup. So when the Journey entire baking and losing the cost of the and for too proud to fight. Any Wan stormy night, the Jack bloosaved on the price of the Baking into a harmony like a graphpo wid the feet. into a harmony like a Dimyerat Tariff "I've at alls ye now?" calls Balaam clubbin' him wid both hands.

"Nivver did I pass the like," yells the high, don't think the quality is the Ass, sweath, and thrembila. "Ut best. Some women do, and they are says ut's an eight hour law. Ob, phwat is ut?" screams the Ass to Balaam, feebly waggin' bls cars.

"I dinno phwat ut is meself," says Balaam, "but I know phwat ut's got," Balnam savs.

"Phwat?" axes the poor Ass. "Five hundther thousand votes," says Baluam, wid a plous air. "G'wan, ye big Asa, an' doant ye argue wid an Idaylist," says Balaam to the Ass.
"We can't pass ut in the dark," pleads
the Ass. "Lave us wait for light,"

mouns the Ass, weepin',
"Nix," says Baisam, "There's a hot time comin' an' the votes'll spile. Do ye thurst for sixteen more years in the wilderness? Giddip," says be, "purg in' ye'r heart," says Balsam, "Iv Iviry thought thut's selfish," says Balsam, "or personal," chants Balsam to the poor Ara ticklin' the Jack's slats wid a couplin' pin. By this time, the Ass was so wore out wid his ardyons labors, that be knew no more than Balaam himself, So, wid one despairin' cry, he dropped his ears, as he an' his master stumbled

Daily Thought. A tactful man can pull a stinger from a bee without getting stung.-G.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Bridge Party

The first meeting of the Bridge Club this season met at the home of Miss Catherine Victory Tuesday afternoon at her home on East Main.

After several games the bridge prize was won by Miss Lucy Fawcett and the guest prize by Miss Margaret Ross. The bostess, assisted by Mrs. Brent Hart, of Dawson, served a delightful salad course, Those present were: Misses Lurline Coil, Frances Elgin, Lucile Whittinghill, Amelia Coil, Mayme Wooten, Laura Isabel Laffoon, Louise McPherson, Nan Kirkwood, Mary and Margaret Ross, Lucy Fawcett and Mrs. Robert Schlottman.

After the social a business meeting was called and new rules voted upon. Two new members were taken into the club, Mrs. lonigomery Holeman and Mrs. Sterling Lanier, of Nortonville. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Robert Schlottman,

October Bargain Club

An opportunity is presented our readers this month to seure The Evansville Courier laily for one year and The Bee ent semi weekly one year at he bargain rate of $3.50. The egular price for both papers is

It is expected that hundreds f people will take advantage of nis chance to get their favorite ity daily and home semi-weekly t a moderate price. It your ubscription does not expire ut 1 3 il later, your time will be xtended one year. This low ate is made however only in the nonth of October.

